Dear Sir,

With reference to your D.O.letter No.526/C.B. dated 17th November 1920 and the subsequent reminder of yesterday, re. the purchase of some wet lands near Harohalli village in the Hoskote Taluk, by the wife of Mr. Karimullah Farukki, I am to state that the original communication reached me, in Mysore camp, on the 19th ultimo. Though the information furnished re. the lands intended to be purchased was not enough to identify them, the Sub Division Officer of Dodballapur was immediately written to, to report in the matter within a week. He, in his turn, called for a report from the Amildar who returned the communication to the Sub Division Officer on the 29th October 1920 stating that it was not possible to ascertain the required information in the absence of more details re. the lands. The Sub Division Officer again sent it back to the Amildar on the 4th November 1920 with instructions to ascertain the information by making a local enquiry, to which the Amildar submits his report on the 14th November 1920 that the lands

Dear Sir, CB 119-20-7.

I am desired to return herewith the enclosures received with your Confidential d.o letter No 134 dy the 18th instant and to convey the following observations of Govt on the unbusinesslike manner in which this matter was dealt with by everybody concerned, particularly by the Amildar.

Govt feel that when information conveyed in your [illegible] the Communication defective, ~~and doubtless~~ ~~reached from the dept~~ it would have been best ~~to~~ have indicated ~~on~~ your instructions to your subordinates as to how to proceed, even as the Asst Com[r] found it necessary to do, in his order dy 4-11-20.

They consider also that your responsibility does not end with merely passing on such communications or reports if and when received, you should see ~~but Govt also to ensure~~ that the report is received within a reasonable time, which in your judgment was admitted by one week in this instance. It would have been easier to enforce this limit by a reference to the notebook of cases requiring your personal attention & following up, which you are required to maintain, in the suggestions for improving the efficiency of Offices (Paras 303 & 305 of Part I of the Manual of General Circulars & Standing Orders).

The Asst Comr Mr B. Krishna-swamy Iyengar has contributed to the delay by permitting phenomenal delays in his office in despatching this urgent Communication at every stage and by also allowing delayed submission of the paper to him. The latter circumstance shows the need for enforcing the responsibility of each Officer to open his dak & attach great importance to which Govt

The Accountant has, by his first report, manifested his ignorance of a very common matter concerning his duties. He must be warned to be more circumspect in future.

Yours Sincerely,

Chairman.
